

Allfunds Singapore Donates To Cambodian Non-Profit

TO COMMEMORATE THE LUNAR NEW YEAR

24/01/2020

Dear Family & Friends,

We're celebrating the Spring Festival a little differently this year.

To express our gratitude for your continuous support and patronage, we would like to celebrate the Lunar New Year with a meaningful donation to Solidaridad, Ayuda y Unión Crean Esperanza (SAUCE).

SAUCE is a non-profit organisation based in Cambodia. Founded by Kike Figaredo almost 20 years ago, SAUCE is committed to the service of the impoverished and the needy — via the pillars of child education, health services, and support for the disabled.

“There is no better way to celebrate the Lunar New Year than with a renewed purpose,” said David Pérez, Regional Manager Asia at Allfunds.

“We wish to acknowledge Kike Figaredo’s decades of contribution towards a more inclusive, kinder society, and we hope our esteemed customers would feel the same way.”

Figaredo, an Asturian Jesuit, had famously worked closely with the International Campaign to Ban Landmines (ICBL), which prompted the signing of the Ottawa International Treaty in 1997. The campaign was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in the same year.

SAUCE has spearheaded social and humanitarian projects since 2001 to assist at least 80,000 people in Cambodia and neighbouring regions. SAUCE’s transparency and good practices with donation-management also led to its accreditation by the Loyalty Foundation in 2015.

For more information on SAUCE, please head to sauceong.org.

